School for Public Health Research

Evaluating Local Public Health Practice
Sharing our learning from the Public Health Practice Evaluation Scheme (PHPES)

25 January 2017, 12.00 to 16.00
Pemberton Room, ScHARR, University of Sheffield, Regent Court,
30 Regent Street, Sheffield, S1 4DA

PROGRAMME

12.00 - 12.10 Welcome and introduction to PHPES
Jennie Popay, Professor of Sociology and Public Health, Lancaster University, Deputy Director of SPHR, Co-Director Liverpool and Lancaster Universities Co-laboration for Public Health Research (LiLaC)

12.10 - 13.00 Lunch and networking with poster display

13.00 – 14.30 Presentations from four local evaluations

Doncaster Foundation for Change Domestic Abuse Perpetrators Programme - Steve Ariss/Parveen Ali, University of Sheffield and Susan Hampshaw, Head of Research & Evaluation, Public Health, Doncaster Council

The health inequalities impact of reducing the cost of local authority leisure facilities in the North West – Ben Barr, Department of public health University of Liverpool/LiLaC and Claire Ramwell, Head of Service, Culture, Leisure, Sport & Young People, Blackburn with Darwen Council

The Time Credit Programme in Wisbech, Cambridgeshire: assessing impacts on health and social wellbeing - Louise Lafortune, University of Cambridge and Mark Caffrey, Senior Project Manager: East of England, Spice Innovations Ltd

Football as a mental health intervention – the ‘Coping Through Football’ evaluation - Bettina Friedrich, UCL and Alex Welsh, Chief Executive, The London Playing Fields Foundation

14.30 – 15.00 Refreshments

15.00 – 15.50 Open discussion: lessons so far and future directions

15.50 – 16.00 Summing up - Jennie Popay